

The Fourth of July: A Celebration of History

Why does God care about history?

#1. To highlight His _____.

Key verses in Hebrews 12 are preceded by a _____ lesson of faith. God highlights those in Scripture who have been _____ and _____ - _____, the “_____ of _____,” so that we might be inspired to imitate them.

#2. To highlight His _____.

God asks His children to remember His _____ in Scripture. God calls us to reflect on His faithfulness so that we might become more _____.

Knowing the history in the _____ is most important because the Bible is the _____ of _____.

However, we can be _____ by our nation’s history and founding when we reflect upon: The _____ of many of the founders and God’s _____ to our nation.

The recent trend in history: _____.

3 Types of Revisionist History: _____, _____, _____.

Name two consequences of this in our culture:

_____.

What happened on July 4, 1776? Congress approved the _____ of the Declaration of Independence.

John Adams to his wife, July 3, 1776: “It ought to be commemorated as the day of _____, by solemn acts of _____ to God Almighty.”

John Adams, 1813: “The general principles on which the fathers achieved independence were... the general principles of _____.”

The Miraculous Nature of Our Nation’s Independence: _____ men representing _____ states with no army or navy declared their independence from the worlds largest _____.

Let’s be _____ and inspired by God’s _____ and the _____ of our founders and reflect on our own faith walks. Is God calling us to do difficult things, “_____” things in our lives? Let’s pray for _____.
